World Wide Day of Play

Saturday, September 20, is Nickelodeon's Worldwide Day of Play- an entire day devoted to PLAY! To celebrate, Nickelodeon will be off the air from 12-3 p.m. to encourage you to get outside and play. So don't just sit there. Go play! That goes for the parents too! The Parks and Recreation Department has scheduled these 3 hours to encourage the family to get out and play with games, attractions, refreshments, music and more. There is no charge for this celebration of fun and togetherness.

Schedule of events:

Hot dogs and ice cold water for the first 100 people

Popsicles and popcorn throughout the event.

Attractions 12-3 p.m.

Geocaching in the park 12-3 p.m. (Bring a smart phone)

Relay Races 12:30 p.m.

Water balloon toss 1 p.m.

Pool relay races 2 p.m. (Must be able to swim. Bring or wear bathing suit.)

Dow Park near pool area

In case of rain, limited activities will be held inside the Community Center.

Spanish Classes

Spanish classes for ages 4-10 will be offered twice a week for all fluency levels. The goal is to teach kids the natural way through language immersion and active learning. The students will be engaged in fun, age-appropriate activities that reinforce their newly acquired Spanish vocabulary. Each session consists of 55 minutes of conversational Spanish and 55 minutes of interactive learning per week taught by certified Texas educators. Sessions will be broken down into units with each having a theme of learning such as greeting people, the Spanish alphabet, days of the week, etc.

Location: Community Center, Rm. 10

Instructor: Pileirol Retta

Session Dates:

Boater's Education

This Texas boater education course covers a range of topics—from safety instructions to boat handling to reading the weather—and prepares you for a variety of situations you could find yourself in while on the water. Boaters can keep themselves and their passengers safe by learning about responsible boat operation, etiquette, and the rules of the water. Because educated boaters are safer boaters, completing this Texas approved online course can also earn you a discount on your boat and PWC insurance. Contact Mary Carrier at 281-534-0125 or 281-705-5216 or email at mary.carrier@tpdwd.texas.gov for registration.

Big Fish Dinner Theatre Production

Based on the celebrated novel by Daniel Wallace and the acclaimed Columbia Pictures film directed by Tim Burton, BIG FISH centers on Edward Bloom, a traveling salesman who lives life to its fullest... and then some! Edward's incredible, larger-than-life stories thrill everyone around him – most of all, his devoted wife Sandra. But their son Will, about to have a child of his own, is determined to find the truth behind his father's epic tales.

Ticket Reservations: 281-794-2448

Junior Art Park Players (JAPP) Classes

The Junior Art Park Players provides instruction that encompasses virtually every aspect of theatre: acting, enunciation, vocal performance, development of creative imagination, stage direction, facial and vocal expression, choreography, vocal projection, body language, team work, active listening skills, theatre discipline and etiquette, technical theatre, commercial training, public speaking and modeling. Even the "business" side of theatre is touched upon with lessons on such practical tasks as how to select an agent. In addition to classroom activities and performances in and out of class, students also have the opportunity to audition for Art Park Player dinner theatre productions when appropriate roles are called for. Our goal is not only to teach the students the basics of theatre, but also to help instill in them self esteem and confidence and the joy of performing.

Tree Selection "Tips from Tiffany"

Trees play an important part in our lives. They clean the air by reducing carbon provide shade, habitat and beauty. Keeping this in mind, making the right selection for your site means you could be planting a tree that will last for several generations. Many factors need to be considered for your tree to have the best chance at surviving and thriving. An added benefit to selecting the right tree for the right place is less maintenance required in terms of watering, pruning and fertilizing.

The first thing is to consider what the location will offer your tree. How much growing space is there for the roots and also the canopy? How is the water availability, soil texture and drainage? What are the light levels like in the area? Is it mostly sun, mostly shade or somewhere in between? Once you have answers to all these questions you can focus on the design aspect.

Are you looking for trees to provide a wind screen, hide an unpleasant building, or to provide shade in the summer and sun during the winter? Would you like colored foliage or flowers? What shape of canopy do you have room for at your site? If you are looking for a tree with minimal leaf drop you should probably look for an evergreen. Would you like for your tree to produce fruit or nuts? There are so many possibilities it's easy to get overwhelmed. It's important to do your research. Make sure you know how big the tree will get so you plant it far enough away from your house, street, driveway or pool. Native trees for your area will require less maintenance in terms of watering or fertilizing.

One of the most important things to consider in tree selection is whether there are nearby overhead or underground power lines. Be sure to have underground lines located before digging. When planting near overhead lines be sure you leave enough distance for the canopy not to grow up or over into the power lines. This is the easiest way to ensure your tree won't be cut or removed because it is interfering with the power lines. If your tree does grow up into the line be sure to leave the trimming to trained professionals. Serious injury or death can occur and by law, only professionals who are authorized by the local electric utility company are allowed to trim or remove trees next to power lines.

Haunted Maze

Jimmy Burke Activity Center, 500 W. 13th Street

A cool shudder trickles down your spine. Glancing around nervously, you see somber portraits staring at you from behind layers of dust, seemingly infiltrating your very being. Cold, hesitant light streams in through a cracked window, casting eerie shadows on the walls. As you walk forward, you can't help but feel that someone is following you. Whirling around, you see nothing but the empty hallway and the faces in the portraits staring at you. 'Turn back' they seem to say, but you swallow a nervous whimper and continue into the dark bowels of the maze.
